1	Please make it big and wide open. Not small and hidden. The problem with the last one was that it was small and not worth it for family's to enjoy, it was over taken my drug addicts and homeless. I think if it's big enough and wide open, then maybe more families would take advantage of it. Not just some random small play structure behind a store, like the old one. It had no meaning or advantage. It would be nice if it was large enough to have a field to play in, but that's not gonna happen. My only suggestion is to open up the area behind it. So it's not so closed in and unwelcoming. Right now, it's all closed in and homeless people have taken home to it. No family with kids wants to play at a park with that. It has to be big and open. Otherwise it's a waste of time and money....like the original one that was there.	1/17/2019 2:31 AM
2	Please consider fencing this playground in, including a gate. I am a mom of two toddlers, and really place a lot of value on the safety a gate provides. I actively watch my kids at parks, but even so, a gate is invaluable!	1/15/2019 7:49 PM
3	Basketball court can be found at any local school. Use that space for a water park! It's hotter each summer than the last (see Everett's Forest Park or Seattle's 1st Ave NE water park or Edmonds Water Park) are immensely popular w/all ages. Slides get really HOT in the sun & regretfully burn kids legs on hot sunny days. Cover with shade trees! Also not good w/mix of young to teens. Too much seating!! All for adults not kids. Grass & low plantings will be overrun. Local cats will love their 'sandboxes'. So much climbing, not enough crawling like over & through pipes. Music pipes (Lake City Community Center Park) are attractive for all age kids & adults. Most parks have swings, I'd rather see a skate park, bike/scooter paths for kids, longer perimeter paths for adults to walk/exercise. fencing on arterial side. Lots of tall trees for shade in summer or roofs for shade? Some surfaces to double as tables for picnics.	1/15/2019 2:18 PM
4	I like the location of the play equipment in the ninja theme the next, but I like a lot of the elements of the other themes more.	1/15/2019 1:21 AM
5	Keep up the good work. Glad to see progress on this.	1/14/2019 7:34 PM
6	It's very important that there is some kind of fence/gate to keep younger children from running into the street/falling into the little waterway near the path through the park. 5th Ave. N.E. is very busy, as is the street between the park and the Target shopping center.	1/14/2019 4:50 PM
7	I worry the ninja course will exclude younger children and the farm theme will exclude older children. The flight option seems best for all ages, in my opinion.	1/14/2019 3:57 PM
8	There should be a fence around this area.	1/14/2019 12:57 PM
9	Love the porch swings. Great option for families with infants.	1/14/2019 12:05 PM
10	I would love to see a park that both caters to younger and older kids, as well as children with limited mobility.	1/14/2019 10:29 AM
11	Will there be fencing to prevent kids from running onto busy 5th Ave NE?	1/14/2019 9:18 AM
12	I love these options. My concern is any private or enclosed areas where people could potentially have the privacy to shoot up or use drugs leaving behind needles and sharps. Open play structures are a better options to avoid this issue.	1/14/2019 5:14 AM
13	Love all the themes! I think it would be great to have a couple themed items plus a good size imaginative play structure. I also have a 2 year old right now though, so I would like for there to be a good size play area for both small children and older kids. I find that most playgrounds have either a good size area for young or old, not a nice mix for both. I also think it's important to have a shelter area.	1/14/2019 2:16 AM
14	A popular show American Ninja warrior as far as a lot of young kids today both boy and girl giving them a place to do that at would be tremendously welcomed	1/14/2019 12:10 AM
15	Excited for a future playground in the neighborhood we can stop by when out and about!	1/13/2019 11:01 PM

16	Please consider a fence around play area, or at least running along the 5th ave side. This is a very busy street and a barrier would mean a lot for families with little ones.	1/13/2019 10:48 PM
17	Water features (splash pad/spray park) would be nice too	1/13/2019 10:47 PM
18	Bruce Hubbard, who's family the park was named after recently past in August 2018. Having been a WWII fighter pilot, the "Hubbard In Flight" would be a kind and appropriate tribute theme to a beautiful man and the wonderful family for whom the park was named in dedication.	12/28/2018 12:43 AM
19	I am one of Bruce's granddaughters, currently living in Hawaii. My Grandpa would be so happy to know there are improvements to the park! I love the homage to his service and the P-38s. I think it was his favorite part of his life, one that he loved telling to anyone who was interested! Thank you!	12/27/2018 4:36 PM
20	Hubbards family is not a big fan of the park so would not go there	12/27/2018 1:01 PM
