DESIGN OPPORTUNITY

● DR. JOSE RIZAL PARK: PART 2

Seattle
Parks & Recreation

Welcome to Part 2!

Thank you for participating in this opportunity for the chance to become the Design Partner in the reimagining of Dr. Jose Rizal Park. We see the promise in the concepts that you presented and we want to see them developed further in a way that is faithful to your vision, the community, the history of this important place, and a brighter, more equitable future for all.

The Submission Requirements

This is an opportunity to show us how your vision and concepts take form. The submitted materials should demonstrate development of the concepts from Part 1 and show how your ideas translate into design. Focus on communicating the important aspects of the design and let us know what site features and components are needed to successfully and meaningfully realize your proposed vision.

Submit the following by the deadline:

A) Site plan: This should show proposed upgrades with key dimensions, plantings, materials, hard and soft surfaces.

B) Sketches or renderings: These should convey the key elements of your design, including any details, dimensions, and/or materials that help get the developed concepts across. Think: What components are needed to bring the vision to life?

[Optional] Additional supporting exhibits: Teams may submit any other exhibits/diagrams that help convey the important aspects of the design.
