NORTHGATE NEIGHBORHOOD GREENWAY SELECTED ROUTE

March 2018

WHAT'S A NEIGHBORHOOD GREENWAY?

Neighborhood greenways are safer, calmer residential streets for you, your family, and neighbors. We make people walking and biking the priority.

Neighborhood greenways can include:

- Easier crossings of busy streets with crosswalks, flashing beacons, or traffic signals
- Speed humps to calm traffic
- Stop signs for side streets
- 20 mph speed limit signs
- Signs and pavement markings to help people find their way

The Northgate Neighborhood Greenway came from city planning efforts and community requests. The Bicycle Master Plan (BMP) calls for a network of neighborhood greenways in the Maple Leaf neighborhood that connect to schools and neighborhood destinations. With the opening of the Northgate Link light rail station in 2021, this neighborhood greenway was identified as a high priority for Northeast Seattle.

WHAT WE HEARD

We've been working with people in the Northgate, Pinehurst, and Maple Leaf communities since spring 2017, to select a route for a new neighborhood greenway to be built as soon as 2020.

Hundreds of people gave feedback via an online survey, at public events, and through conversations with the project team.

We heard requests for a neighborhood greenway with:

- Connections to Maple Leaf Reservoir Park, Northgate Library and Community Center, nearby shopping, and the future Link Light Rail station.
- Improvements to help calm traffic
- Safer crossings at busy intersections
- Routes that avoid the steepest hills

This project is funded by the 9-year Levy to Move Seattle, approved by voters in 2015. Learn more about the levy at www.seattle.gov/LevytoMoveSeattle.

Maple Leaf Connection

The first phase of the neighborhood greenway will connect people in Northgate and Maple Leaf between Link light rail, Maple Leaf Reservoir Park, Northgate Mall, and the Northgate Community Center and Library. We're proposing upgrades to the crossings at 5th Ave NE & NE 103rd St and at Roosevelt Way NE & NE 103rd St to help people walking and biking cross these busy intersections. We're also working with Parks to upgrade park entrances that connect to the neighborhood greenway.

Pinehurst Connection

The second phase of the neighborhood greenway provides a north-south connection into Pinehurst and ends at Hazel Wolf K-8 School. We're proposing a crossing improvement at NE 117th St & Roosevelt Way NE and upgrading the signal on NE Northgate Way & 8th Ave NE.
