NORTHGATE NEIGHBORHOOD GREENWAY MOST PROMISING ROUTE

July 2017

WHAT'S A NEIGHBORHOOD GREENWAY?

Neighborhood greenways are safer, calmer residential streets for you, your family, and neighbors. We make people walking and biking the priority.

Neighborhood greenways can include:

- easier crossings of busy streets with crosswalks, flashing beacons, or traffic signals
- speed humps to calm traffic
- stop signs for side streets
- 20 mph speed limit signs
- signs and pavement markings to help people find their way

WHAT WE HEARD

We've been working with people in the Northgate and Maple Leaf communities since spring 2017 to select a route for a new neighborhood greenway to be built as soon as 2020.

Hundreds of people gave feedback via an online survey, at public events, and through conversations with the project team.

We heard requests for a neighborhood greenway with:

- connections to Maple Leaf Reservoir Park, Northgate Library and Community Center, nearby shopping, and the future Link Light Rail station.
- improvements to help calm traffic
- safer crossings at busy intersections
- routes that avoid the steepest hills

MOST PROMISING ROUTE

We selected our most promising route after listening to the community, reviewing existing transportation plans, and analyzing traffic data.

The most promising route is divided into two phases because Phase 2 is not yet funded.

Phase 1

The first phase of the neighborhood greenway will connect people in Northgate and Maple Leaf between Link light rail, Maple Leaf Reservoir Park, Northgate Mall, and the Northgate Community Center and Library. We're proposing upgrades to the crossings at 5th Ave NE and NE 103rd St and at Roosevelt Way NE and NE 103rd St to help people walking and biking cross these busy intersections.

Phase 2

The second phase of the most promising route provides a north-south connection into Pinehurst and ends at Hazel Wolf K-8 School. We're proposing a crossing improvement at NE 117th St and Roosevelt Way NE, in addition to upgrading the signal on NE Northgate Way and 8th Ave NE. We're seeking funding to build Phase 2 over the next few years and will be sure to update the community if our efforts are successful.
