

NEED HELP WITH INTERNET COSTS?

What is the ACP?

The Affordable Connectivity Program is an FCC program that helps connect families and households struggling to afford internet service.

The benefit provides:

- Up to $30/month discount for internet services
- A one-time discount of up to $100 for a device purchased through some participating providers (if the provider you're getting service from is offering devices)

How to apply:

- 1 Visit ACPBenefit.org/do-i-qualify/ to verify your eligibility
 - 2 Fill out an application online or download and print an application to mail in
 - 3 Apply your benefit with your internet service provider
- * Note: Internet providers with residents on a low-income program allow direct ACP sign-up.

You can use your discount with almost all internet and mobile providers.

Based on your income

You are eligible for the ACP if your income is 200% or less than the Federal Poverty Guideline (table). The guideline is based on your household size and state.

The table on the right reflects the income limit by household size, which is 200% of the 2022 Federal Poverty Guideline.

You may have to show proof of income, like a tax return or three consecutive pay stubs, when you apply.

Household size	Washington
1	$ 27,180
2	$ 36,620
3	$ 46,060
4	$ 55,500
5	$ 64,940
6	$ 74,380
For each additional person, add	$ 9,440

Your internet service could be FREE

When you qualify and enroll in the ACP and use an internet service that's $30 or less, your internet will be free!

For example, Astound Simply Internet and Xfinity Internet Essentials are free when you use your benefit with them. PCs for People and Human-I-T are two mobile providers that offer one-stop-shop enrollment.

Xfinity (Comcast) Internet Essentials customers can apply the discount directly through their accounts. For more information, go to xfinity.com/learn/internet-service/acp or call 855-870-1311.
